

Myles Silvers
Senior Manager, Audit Services
RSM US LLP

Myles Silvers is a Senior Manager in the New York office at RSM US LLP. RSM is a global provider of audit, tax and consulting services focused on the middle market. Myles specializes in servicing consumer products companies. He has experience managing both domestic and global engagements, and advises clients in the wholesale, distribution, retail and manufacturing of consumer products. Myles provides audit and advisory services to closely held companies and the portfolio companies of private equity firms. He has practiced public accounting for approximately nine years.

Myles received his BS in Accounting and Finance from The Whitman School of Management at Syracuse University. He continued his education and also received his Masters in Accounting from Syracuse University.