

Most recently Quentin Pell served as SVP, Chief of Staff, ESG and Corporate Communications for publicly traded Real Estate Investment Trust, Tanger Properties L.P. During his tenure he managed other functions including Crisis Reputation Management, Business Continuity, Succession Planning and Execution.

Previously, Mr. Pell was with the Neiman Marcus Group where he cultivated relationships with luxury brands and designers to support the organization's sales strategy. In this role, he planned and executed co-branded luxury marketing events and campaigns to drive sales, enhance customer engagement, and cement brand loyalty.

He earned his B.A. in Art History, and his MBA from Southern Methodist University.

Pell currently serves on the Board of Directors of Delivering Good and has served on the Boston College Corporate Citizenship Executive Forum.