

Jaryn Bloom
Group President of Retail
Michael Kors

Jaryn Bloom is the Group President of Retail at Michael Kors. Michael Kors is a part of Capri Holdings LTD, a global fashion design house traded on the NYSE and is recognized as one of Americas preeminent designers for luxury accessories and sportswear.

With over 35 years of experience in the industry, Jaryn brings a wealth of expertise to her role. She is known to be a visionary with a proven track record of building and scaling world-class retail businesses.

Since 2005, Jaryn has been the driving force behind the company's multi-billion-dollar retail strategy and global expansion that now includes over 900 locations worldwide and has received industry-wide recognition. Jaryn is credited with bringing a data driven mindset to the organization and architecting the brand's best-in-class e-commerce business which now operates in 45 countries across North America, EMEA and Asia.

Prior to Michael Kors, Jaryn joined Elie Tahari as Retail President, where she played a key role in defining the business model and merchandising strategies.

Jaryn began her career at Kenneth Cole Productions where she spent 17 years rising through the ranks to become the Senior Vice President of Retail and a member of the company's Executive Committee.

Jaryn is a proud member of the Michael Kors Executive Team, honored by Crane's "40 under 40", serves as a Board Member of Delivering Good, and is an active member of GLWD, The DealmakeHers, and the Retail Influencer Network. In addition, she is an Angel Investor and acts as an advisor to young companies that have a vision of how to change the way consumers shop.

Jaryn is an expert in the direct-to-consumer space, an innovative business leader, and a strong merchant with tremendous financial acumen. She is known to lead her organizations with energy, passion, and commitment.
