

Teddy Mendoza

Director of Global Corporate Safety and Sustainability

HanesBrands Inc.

Teddy has 22 years of experience in corporate social responsibility, safety and environmental sustainability. In his current position he is responsible for the overall People pillar of the global sustainability initiative at Hanes – and delivering its publicly communicated goals. This includes driving the pursuit of impacting at least ten million lives by 2030 in the themes of Comfort, Inclusion and Health through direct philanthropy and volunteerism . Teddy is also responsible for driving overall environmental, health and safety (EHS) leadership for all global locations at Hanes. In the course of his career, Teddy has earned experience leading and working alongside multi-country teams implementing environmental and safety management systems, chemical management systems, apparel sustainability accreditations, social compliance programs, code of conduct monitoring and investigations, workplace ethics programs, NGOs, public relations programs, community philanthropic projects and corporate volunteerism initiatives. Member of the board of the World Business Council for Sustainable Development (El Salvador Chapter). Member of the Sustainability Committee of the Honduran Apparel Manufacturers Association. Member of the sustainability committee of the Salvadorian Textile Chamber. Teddy holds an MBA from the Universitat Politècnica de Catalunya in Spain and a Postgraduate Diploma in Sustainable Business from the University of Cambridge in the U.K. Teddy is a citizen of Honduras and lived in El Salvador for 16 years until 2022 when he relocated to Winston-Salem, NC with his family.