

Quentin Pell, founder of Q5 Advisory, brings over two decades of experience from the luxury retail and REIT sectors. Quentin delivers tailored sustainability and business consultancy services, advising family-owned private growth companies and well-established public entities. His expertise enables businesses to integrate their sustainability goals with operational strategies, mitigating risk, establishing, and maintaining competitive advantage, driving value, and enhancing revenue.

Starting in public relations, Quentin's roles evolved to encompass responsibilities in brand management, nonprofit partnerships, co-branded luxury retail partnerships, corporate communications, crisis reputation management, disaster recovery business continuity, enterprise risk management, sustainability, and as Chief of Staff. His cumulative experiences provide a comprehensive perspective on industry challenges and opportunities on an enterprise-wide scale.

He holds an M.B.A. and B.A. from Southern Methodist University and an Executive Certificate in Corporate Citizenship Management from Boston College's Carroll School of Management.

In addition to his corporate endeavors, Quentin is deeply committed to responsible governance and public service. He serves on the board of Delivering Good, where he is on the Nominating and Governance Committee and is an active National Association of Corporate Directors member.

In the ever-evolving world of sustainability, Quentin Pell stands out as a thought leader and partner, committed to guiding businesses toward integrating environmentally and socially responsible practices into their core business strategies.
